

Centre for an Ethical Society

SYDNEY CHAPTER FORUM

Patrick Dodson

Chairman of the Lingiari Foundation, is widely recognised as the Father of the Reconciliation Movement in Australia

Pat will give a spirited address during a midday Forum on the thought provoking and often challenging topic of “Liyan Ngarn”

(Common Fate between Black and White Australians)

Hosted by: Minister Linda Burney

Tuesday, 21st August 2007

12.15pm for 12.30pm start to be held in the

NSW Parliament House Theatrette

Macquarie Street

Sydney NSW

The Forum featuring an address by Patrick Dodson will be followed by a moderated discussion.

More details on CES Website: www.ces.org.au

Suggested donation: $10 General Public; $5 CES Financial Supporters.

Inquiries: Office Manager, 02 9572 6044 (10.00 am – 2.30 pm Mon-Fri) or Anthony Maher, Chairman CES, 02 9752 9516, amaher@cis.catholic.edu.au

RSVP appreciated by Telephone (02) 9572 6044 or Email: admin@ces.org.au