

REMEMBERANCE WALK

Sunday 24th May 2015 - 3pm

ASG members and interested members of the community meet at 3pm at Berry Park, Narrabeen where a Welcome to Country will be given and a small talk, then a silent walk to the Scout Hall at Bilarong Reserve, Wakehurst Parkway. This is a journey of healing to remember the Stolen Generations, the children and their families, the meaning and repercussions of this to all Australians today. A Smoking Ceremony will greet you when you arrive at the Scout Hall. Refreshments will be available; enjoy a cup of tea or cold drink.

Sorry Day will be commemorated with:

- Welcome to Country – Introduction
 - A reading by the Biala girls from Auntie Nancy Wood's short book of poetry "Nobody's Child"
- Karen Smith from Aboriginal Heritage Office will speak about the Stolen Generations.

A short break. The BBQ and refreshments will be available all afternoon.

Then - Aboriginal dancers - Not to be missed!

Beautiful Jannawi Dancing Clan

Example of bark painting

Gerard McMinn, Aboriginal dancer

Scott Romain on didgeridoo

From 3.30pm there will be Boomerang and Bark Painting for the children with Karleen Green and the children's artwork will be shown at the end of the day. They can take their artwork home, with an extra gift from ASG-MWP.

This is a FREE EVENT. All are welcome.

The day concludes at about 5.30pm